NAVEEN PRABHAKAR, PREETI JHANGIANI, HUSSAIN KUWAJERWALA and SHATRUGHAN SINHA who entered with wife POONAM SINHA, but left early saying that they were heading to Delhi for charity and fund collection purpose for Bihar victims. The annual show 'Dhoom', organised by the Hindi Parishad of Jai Hind College marked its silver jubilee this year. Under the guidance of Ms. Nisha Sikka and organised by industrialist and socialist ANEEL MURARKA, the event was definitely a success. With the event being hosted by the famous witty RJ ANURAAG PANDEY of Red FM and Sajid who is from Jai Hind College himself propagating Hindi Literature amongst the youth of today, the message sure came across strong!

SOHAIL KHAN was seen at the launch of Gold Gym's new branch at the Raghuleela Mall, Kandivali on the auspicious day of Eid. Sohail Khan, dressed in casual jeans and T-shirt, was all praises for the Gym. He made sure he expressed his pride of being a member of the gym and said he owed his impeccable physique to personal training, attention and motivation he got from the trainers of the Gold's Gym. He took time out from his family gathering and made it to the launch of this new branch. But the show stoppers of the day were the body builders who displayed their bodies at this event. In fact, Sohail was so impressed with their physique that he was even seen cheering every time a body builder posed on the stage.

He is known for his controversial films, which questions and highlights various societal issues. After his last film, 'Provoked' starring AISHWARYA RAI BACHCHAN, director JAGMOHAN MUNDRA's recently released, 'Shoot on Sight' starring NASEERUDDIN SHAH and OM PURI has been critically acclaimed in Dubai and Osian Cinefan Film Festival among others. "My films have the knack of hitting the headlines very often, be it right reasons or otherwise. It happened when I made 'Bawandar'. 'Shoot on Sight' had a lower opening in London than 'Provoked' because it featured Aishwarya Rai, a known international name," says
